

REBECCA BAXT, MD, MBA, FAAD

Rebecca Baxt, MD, FAAD is a board-certified dermatologist who specializes in outstanding patient service for both cosmetic and general dermatology for adults and children. She is Ivy League-educated at the University of Pennsylvania where she graduated Summa Cum Laude and Phi Beta Kappa. She continued at Penn for medical school and internship in Internal Medicine. She trained in Dermatology at New York University School of Medicine where she was a Chief Resident and recipient of the Morris Leider award for excellence in patient care. She continues to teach at New York University Langone Medical Center where she is an Assistant Professor of Clinical Dermatology.

She joined her parents, Dr. Saida Baxt and Dr. Sherwood Baxt, at Baxt Cosmedical in Paramus in 2000. She has an office in Manhattan at 635 Madison Ave. between 59th and 60th streets for patient convenience.

Dr. Rebecca Baxt treats all skin conditions, and specializes in cosmetic consultations and procedures. She has a particular interest in acne and rosacea, as well as skin cancer detection and prevention. She is a nationally recognized Certified Allergan Botox Cosmetic and Juvederm Trainer. She performs botox injections, facial fillers, chemical peels, photorejuvenation, Isolaz acne treatments, laser hair removal, leg vein injections, photodynamic therapy, V-Beam laser and Fraxel laser resurfacing.

Dr. Rebecca Baxt maintains many society affiliations. She is a Fellow of the American Academy of Dermatology and a member of the American Society for Dermatologic Surgery as well as the Skin Cancer Foundation. She volunteers free skin cancer screenings yearly through The Valley Hospital in Ridgewood. She is a staff member at Bergen Volunteer Medical Initiative in Hackensack where she takes care of underserved patients with dermatologic conditions.

Dr. Rebecca Baxt is a recipient of the Top Doctor award from (201) Magazine two years in a row – for both 2012 and 2013.
